

OCT
27

PUMPKIN PATCH

FREE AFTER SCHOOL EVENT

for children with special needs, their siblings and friends.
Featuring Special Video Screening of: "Noko the Knight"

East Rutherford Community Center

37 VREELAND AVENUE, EAST RUTHERFORD

3:30PM TO 5:30PM; costume optional

Join us for a fun afternoon of pumpkin "picking" and painting, as we celebrate the one-year birthday of "Noko the Knight" with Halloween refreshments, snacks, and a special birthday cake created by Maria Loi, Celebrity Chef for the White House.

Enjoy a video screening of the South African State Theatre production of this charming children's book about values and compassion.

Enter a free drawing for a "Noko the Night" Kiddies Kit; courtesy of author, Eleni Theodorou. This event is free and open to all differently-abled or special needs children under 12 years of age. We welcome parents, guardians, or caregivers, elder siblings and friends.

MAKE SURE TO RESERVE YOUR PUMPKIN!

E-MAIL US AT: ERACCESSFORALL@GMAIL.COM

Hosted by East Rutherford Access for All, and the East Rutherford Memorial Library

